This 8-hour interactive ACA National course provides an overview of key aspects of the camp director's job and is intended for seasonal or new camp directors, assistant directors, program directors or people who have been in other administrative positions and are considering directing camp in the near future. The course will cover core areas with special focus offered on leadership, risk management, camper behavior, staff training, and staff supervision. Upon completion of this one-day course, the ACA National office will mail you a certificate of completion, suitable for framing.
